

EXAM CANDIDACY RECONSIDERATION REQUEST FORM

In response to our disapproval of applicant's candidature on eligibility grounds, applicant must fill this form to request for reconsidering the eligibility for any The Strategy Institute exam applied for. On the basis of this form, the candidature will be again reviewed against the same exam.

Along with this form, applicant must submit a letter stating the exact reason(s) for reconsideration. The form and the letter must be submitted together within 5 working days after candidature disapproval notification.

Note: Applicant must read the eligibility criteria for the said exam carefully and submit any additional documents (if not submitted earlier) that can help us make the quicker decision on the candidature.

DECISION:

Once the eligibility request is received, the applicant will be informed within 5 business days from the date of submission of this form. Once the decision is made upon this request, no more requests will be entertained.
