The Strategy Institute™

The Strategy Institute places a strong emphasis on upholding integrity, with its commitment deeply embedded in the core of its values, particularly within its Code of Ethics. If you suspect any breach of this code by a TSI candidate or certified professional, TSI encourages you to utilize its complaint form for reporting. TSI treats each submission with utmost seriousness and addresses them through a formal process. Complainants who suspect a violation of the TSI code of Ethics can file this complaint which will be duly addressed.

Please read carefully before proceeding:
1. It's important for the person making the complaint to give correct and detailed information. Please make sure to fill in all the parts with an asterisk (*).
2. Anonymous complaints won't be accepted.
